Gov. McCord's Proclamation.

Governor McCord Tuesday Issued a through El Taso early yesterday morn- proclamation of general interest that is unusual in its way as well. It refers to the call of the president for volunteers and the part that Arizona has played in responding to it. In a preamble to the proclamation proper the governor recites the fact that the president issued his exi for troops, and that the governors of other states and territories made proclamation calling upon the people to fill the assigned quotas. This was found three essary in Arizona for the and the governor has been compelled to decline none than 1,000 patriotic offers > States service. In view of these facts the proclamation is issued.

The proclamation itself recites the causes leading up to the present war with Spato. "There wid be no Bull liune," rays the proclamation. "Cuur will be fee and Spain must pay dearly The Phoenix papers are giving it out for blowing up the Mathe, the most
